

MIXED PRACTICE

RELATIVE SENTENCES

- Write who /whom/whose. Use who only when the others are not possible.
- Tomorrow we will find out the person who _____ won the contest.
- I knew the actor who _____ starred in that musical.
- There are some people whom _____ I feel you should thank.
- The guy whose _____ computer I was using moved to Spain.
- The cashier is the one to whom _____ you give the money.
- Sometimes, the winner is the person who _____ tries the hardest.
- This is the teacher whose _____ daughter was expelled from school.
- Melanie couldn't remember the name of the student whose _____ science project received the $100,000 prize.
- I am looking for someone who _____ can give me a ride.
- His friends, none of whom _____ had any money, were not able to help him.
- The girls, both of whom _____ could dance very well, didn't go to the party.
- Can you please tell me the names of the people who _____ helped organize the AIDS charity event?
- She's the actress whom _____ he so vividly describes in his scandalous new book.
- That's the lady whose _____ son was killed in an accident.

Write relative sentences.

1. Yesterday I saw your friend. His sister works with me.
  - Yesterday I saw your friend whose sister works with me.
2. The dog bit me. It belonged to your sister- in- law.
  - The dog that /which bit me belonged to your sister- in- law.
3. I love this house. My mother lived there.
  - I love this house, where my mother lived.
4. I rented a bike. It was green.
  - I rented a bike that /which was green.
5. Clare is a good teacher. I don't like Clare very much.
  - Clare, who /whom I don't like very much, is a good teacher..
6. That's the dog. Its owner is French.
  - That's the dog whose owner is French.
7. I helped my friend. She was ill.
  - I helped my friend who / that was ill.
8. I don't like tropical countries. It's hot there.
  - I don't like tropical countries, where / in which it's hot.
9. This is the photo of the castle. Mrs.Brown killed her husband there.
  - This is the photo of the castle where / in which Mrs.Brown killed her husband./ This is the photo of the castle that /Ø/ which Mrs.Brown killed her husband in.
10. This is Laura Smith. Her daughter won the tennis championship last year.
  - This is Laura Smith, whose daughter won the tennis championship last year.
11. Velazquez painted The Meninas. Velazquez was a famous Spanish painter.
  - Velazquez, who painted The Meninas, was a famous Spanish painter.
12. The letter hasn't arrived yet. I posted it three days ago.
  - The letter that /Ø/ which I posted three days ago hasn't arrived yet.
13. My last holiday was fantastic. I met my girlfriend then.
  - My last holiday, when I met my girlfriend was fantastic.
14. That's my dog. Its tail was cut by the vet last week.
  - That's my dog, whose tail was cut by the vet last week.
15. Let's find a place. We can be alone there.
16. Let's find a place where / in which we can be alone. / Let's find a place that / Ø / which we can be alone in.

17. My aunt lives in Reading. Reading is a town in Wales.
- My aunt lives in Reading, which is a town in Wales.
18. Mr Peters is a teacher. His lessons are always very interesting
- Mr Peters is a teacher whose lessons are always very interesting
19. Have you read The Hobbit? It was written by JRR Tolkien.
- Have you read The Hobbit, which was written by JRR Tolkien?
20. Our cousin lives in London. He is coming to visit us.
- Our cousin, who lives in London, is coming to visit us.
21. June is the month. I was born in June.
- June is the month when / in which I was born./ June is the month that / Ø / which I was born in

Rewrite these sentences using the passive voice, write two sentences wherever possible:

1. They discussed the bank robbery for two or three days.

The bank robbery was discussed for two or three days

2. They sold a record number of books in the second week of March.

A record number of books were sold in the second week of March

3. A gas fire heats the bedroom.

The bedroom is heated by a gas fire

4. Mary is putting away those books.

Those books are being put away by Mary

5. Mr. Steele was stamping the new books.

The new books were being stamped by Mr. Steele

6. They haven't rebuilt the library yet.

The library hasn't been rebuilt yet

7. They gave the pilot a medal.

A medal was given to the pilot

The pilot was given a medal

8. Someone sent the minister a letter bomb.

A letter bomb was sent to the minister

9. They think the company is planning a new campaign.

It is thought that a new campaign is being planned by the company

The company is thought to be planning a new campaign

10. People say Ronaldo is a very good football player

It is said that Ronaldo is a very good football player

Ronaldo is said to be a very good football player

11. They make these televisions in Japan. → These televisions are made in Japan
12. We clean the garages every day. → The garages are cleaned every day
13. Mr. James washes the car every week. → The car is washed every week
14. The police arrested two hundred people. → Two hundred people were arrested
15. They told Mary the news. → Mary was told the news.

REPORTED SPEECH

- 1- He told her: "I'm going home tomorrow."
He told her he was going home the next day
- 2- Ann asked him: "How long have you been here?"
Ann asked him how long he had been there
- 3- I told Mary: "Lend me your car for two hours."
I told Mary to lend me her car for two hours
- 4- He told me: "Don't be so lazy."
He told me not to be so lazy
- 5- He told me: "I wrote to you yesterday."
He told me he had written to me the day before.
- 6- His mother said: "Don't wait for me, Susan".
His mother told Susan not to wait for her
- 7- "Have you found my keys?" my brother said.
My brother asked if I had found his keys.
- 8- "I listened to the news yesterday", he said.
He said he had listened to the news the day before
- 9- She said to me: "Can you please open the window".
He asked me to open the window.
- 10- John said, "I will buy a new computer tomorrow".
John said he would buy a new computer the following day.